EPISODE.—A few nights ago says the Enterprise, Nat Holmes, Maurice May and E. B. Towl, of Franktown, and Frank Bell of Reno, met with rather a startling adventure while journeying by rail from Carson to Reno. An old lady who happened to be on the same train made some weather prognostications in their hearing. Thinking to have some sport they each in turn expressed an opposite opinion from the one entertained by the ancient beldam, whereupon she became enraged to such an extent that she made a charge upon McFARLAND, DAVE, Arcade Saloon, Com- during the coming fishing season we the party, routing them and driving deem it not inappropriate at this time the party, routing the was thought that she was partially insane.
